Assignment 5: Menu

5.1 Sketches

As you can tell, the original concept was very different from the idea that was chosen for the final draft.

The original sketches were for a portfolio that featured my photography and graphic design work. I decided that since the work I am doing in Experience and Interaction is so different than my personal work, I would create a new website to host my experience design work.

5.2 XD Mockup

As you can tell, the original concept was very different from the idea that was chosen for the final draft.

Logo designed by me in Illustrator ——————

Other elements designed by me as well ——————
